NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL NEW HAMPSHIRE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY ETHICS AWARD

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. – Nominations are currently being sought for the twenty-fourth annual New Hampshire Construction Industry Ethics Award. The award is presented to “the individual, business or organization that, through its words and deeds, best demonstrates a commitment to upholding the highest ethical standards in construction.” The award carries with it a handsome plaque and $1,000 cash contribution to the recipient’s charity of choice.

Nominations will be accepted through December 20, 2019, with the recipient to be announced in the spring of 2020. Guidelines for nominating deserving individuals and/or companies may be obtained by contacting the award’s steward, Plan NH, at PO Box 1105 Portsmouth, NH 03802; via phone at 603-452-PLAN, or e-mail: r_leblanc@plannh.org.

Judging for the award is done by a distinguished panel of New Hampshire industry-related individuals, people whose own integrity and judgment is universally respected, and includes past award recipients.

Prior recipients of the award include Gary Betram, formerly of Hutter Construction Dan Church, The Rowley Agency, Concord, N.H.; Frank Lemay, Milestone Engineering and Construction, Concord, N.H.; Richard Uchida of Hinckley Allen, Concord, N.H.; Dan Hazelton of Anderson Equipment Company, Manchester, N.H.; Tom Morin of Morin’s Landscaping, Hollis, N.H.; Mark Bates of Weaver Brothers Construction, Bow, N.H.; John Zahr of Harvey Construction, Bedford, N.H.; Bruss
